

Spirituality in Nursing

Study Day

Aims and Objectives

This program offers a forum for nurses to explore the nature of spirituality and their relationship to the provision of holistic health care.

At the end of this study day the participants should be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of fundamental aspects of spirituality and its meanings.
- Have insight into the relevance of spirituality as a therapeutic aspect of health care.
- Understand the influence of structured religious practice and ritual on spiritual development.
- Appreciate the need that some people may have for recognition of their spirituality when receiving care.
- Identify a broad range of spiritual concepts.
- Explore the influence that personal views may have on the spiritual aspect of nursing practice.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the role of spirituality in nursing care and how to address spiritual issues.

Your facilitator for this study day is:

Molly Carlile

RN, FRCNA, FAICD, AFCHSE, MAIPC, MACA
Molly is a registered nurse, counsellor and educator with considerable clinical and leadership experience. She is a passionate and motivating speaker who inspires her audiences to critically reflect on their professional practice and find creative approaches to their ongoing personal and professional development.
